BRITISH POLITICS.

LONDON, July 12.—Since Lord Salisbury's return from Windsor the National Liberal club appears to have received information that the government will remain in office until it is defeated on a party division. Lord Salisbury will meet parliament with the queen's speech, declaring his policy, and inviting an attack. On the division for debate on amendments to the address the government will be defeated and the cabinet will resign. Lord Salisbury will then recommend to the queen that she send for Mr. Gladstone. The Times says: "It is not manifest that Mr. Gladstone's return will be a task in compelling the government to resign. Lord Salisbury will be perfectly entitled to await the issue of an attack. The government is opposed, not to one party, but to two, to one who must combine to form a majority. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Gladstone will be able to form such an alliance."

Prominent radicals in the National Liberal club are tonight discussing what Mr. Gladstone ought to do. They favored postponing the home rule bill for a year and to open the session of parliament with a labor and rural reform program. The reasons for adopting this course are, first, the present session is a bad one; home rule will precipitate a dissolution the first year of parliament, and, second, if home rule is postponed, the members can be trusted to support it for years, and this will give Mr. Gladstone time to perfect the details of the measure. Representatives to this effect will be made to Mr. Gladstone, it is deemed, if he succeeds, as in private conversation with his colleagues he never failed in his intention to expedite home rule and then retire from public life. The radicals will nominate a laborer for the home office or the local government board.

Serious election rioting occurred yesterday at Killybegs, near Londonderry, Ireland. A band of Fenians made an attack upon Simon's temperance hotel and completely wrecked it and several other houses on Moore street. The Fenians were armed with revolvers, and many were badly beaten on both sides. Women were prominent in the fight. Many windows were smashed. In connection with the rioting, a notice relative to the return of the Irish party, John Dillon, speaking at Gort said that the Fenians were winning all along the line, and that the Fenians were the friends of the Irish party. John Dillon, at Mayo, said that he was anxious to stop the Fenian and Fenianism, but was unable to do so, and as Mr. Dillon would not stand on the same platform as the Fenians, these and other similar speeches show that there is some chance of the Irish American peace committee's smoothing matters over, although the anti-Fenians declare that they do not expect any amicable result from the negotiations.

Up to midnight the Conservatives have returned 34 members of the new house, the Liberals 18, the Liberal Unionists 21, the anti-Fenians 35, the Fenians 3, and the Laborites 3.

The Liberals will be agreeably surprised tomorrow if Mr. Gladstone's majority in Midlothian is not reduced by nearly one thousand votes. Tonight's reports credit Colonel Wauchope, the Unionist candidate, with getting the bulk of the farmers' ballots.

AN ALPINE DISASTER.

Two Villages Suddenly Swept Away by a Mountain Torrent.

PARIS, July 12.—A landslide occurred in the mountains overlooking St. Gervais les Bains, and a great number of houses buried beneath the earth. Thirty houses have already been taken out of the ruins. Further dispatches from St. Gervais state that the landslide which occurred on the northwest side of Mont Blanc became detached and swept down the mountain side. Fifty more bodies have been recovered.

The baths of St. Gervais were in five separate buildings joined by a stone wall, erected in a narrow gorge. They were situated 2,000 feet above the sea. A sudden detachment from Mont Blanc and fell into a mountain torrent, carrying away the bath of Blonay and filling the torrent with masses of ice for the masses of ice and wreckage of the village formed a dam which effectively restrained the waters for some time. Finally it broke and the waters burst like a cataract into the stream of Ronan, which passes through St. Gervais.

The inmates of the bath houses were awakened about 2 1/2 o'clock in the morning by the sound of rushing waters and a loud crashing noise. Before they were able to escape the torrent was filled with debris. The large masses of ice fell against the bath houses. Three of the buildings were entirely destroyed and another one partially. While the fight lasted, the torrent continued to destroy everything in its course. The village of La Fayette, lying in the valley, was almost entirely destroyed. The wreckage of the houses swept on for miles into the Arve. Down the latter stream corpses and wreckage were seen floating all day long. The full mortality is not yet known. It is believed that seventy-five persons perished at the baths alone. At least fifty of the inhabitants of La Fayette were drowned. The latest estimate of the number of victims is 150. A large number of visitors at the place were among the victims.

GENEVA, July 12.—It is now stated that 200 lives were lost in the St. Gervais landslide.

KANSAS MILLERS.

WELLINGTON, Kan., July 12.—The Kansas State Millers' association was called to order promptly at 11 o'clock this morning by President George H. Hunter. Among those in attendance were the following: E. J. Sweet of Florence, Charles Grant of Ellsworth, C. Meade of Arkansas City, J. L. Messy of Udall, George W. Becker of Kansas City, H. D. Crane of Ottawa, Thomas J. Blakely of Pleasanton, M. J. Kelley of Edgerton, N. W. Cannon of Burdett, J. H. Taggart of Walton, C. V. Toppen of Ellipton, E. Dawson of Great Bend, H. Hubbard of Wichita, Henry Felger of Valley Falls, J. W. Kierbill of Mound Ridge, N. E. Carr of Great Bend, R. Warkentin of Newton, H. Davis of LaCrosse, M. Hughes of Kellogg. The transportation companies also had personal representatives present.

An address of welcome was delivered by Mayor J. C. Thompson, and was responded to by Robert Atkinson, secretary of the Kansas Mill-Owners' Mutual Insurance company.

Reports from the different counties were heard as to crop conditions. The general opinion prevailed that the yield of the state was about equal to 90,000,000 bushels of wheat, the quality to be of choice grading No. 2. The entire state will average from seventeen to twenty-two bushels per acre. The transportation companies and dealers in hard for this enormous business, and the Atlantic ports are not willing to see it all go via New Orleans.

The association continues over tomorrow. The citizens entertained their guests by a banquet and lawn social at the residence of the president, who resides here.

THE LADIES.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California Liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

THE RAILWAY COMBINE.

New York, July 12.—The advisory board of the Western Union telegraph company went into session at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the Windsor hotel. All the roads were represented except the Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific and the Great Northern. The meeting was adjourned until October.

Chicago, July 12.—The report received here this afternoon from New York, to the effect that the advisory board of the Western Union telegraph company had met without a quorum and adjourned till next October, is regarded as significant. The general feeling is expressed that the works of a provision of one of the member ship lines, who said:

"This means that the Western Union association has proven a failure, and that some of its strongest members do not care to bother with it any longer. How close can the action of the presidents be taken. Several matters of the greatest importance were to come before them for adjustment at this meeting, and yet some of them deliberately stay away and the rest vote to adjourn until the date of the next quarterly meeting. In the mean time ruinous reductions in Colorado rates will go into effect and the revenues of the little will be cut down to the extent of millions of dollars. As a matter of fact, little attempt has been made of late to enforce the provisions of the president's agreement, and, in my opinion, there should be some action taken to enforce the association if it were not for the effect it would have on the stock market."

St. Louis, July 12.—Much of the time of the directors of the Missouri Pacific, St. Louis and San Francisco railway, to have set aside the consideration of that road with the Atlantic, Topeka and Santa Fe. Late tonight Judge Valliant of the Missouri circuit court sustained the demurrer of the Missouri Pacific to the suit filed by Eastman, holding, first, that no stockholder can object to the ownership of Frisco stock by the Atlantic until he shows himself the owner of stock in the Missouri Pacific, and second, that no stockholder can object to the ownership of Frisco stock by the Atlantic until he shows himself the owner of stock in the Missouri Pacific. The decision virtually settles the case against Eastman and in favor of the Atlantic.

FRENCH TANSY WAFERS.

These wafers are for the relief and cure of painful irregularities, and will remove all obstructions. They are sure and safe every time. Manufactured by Emerson Drug Co., San Jose, Cal., and for sale by Fred L. Rich, 206 East Douglas avenue.

THE PADUCAH RIOT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 12.—After the first skirmish between the state troops called out by the governor and the negro mob which attacked them, both sides retired to their respective positions in the court-house and the negroes at Old Fellows hall. It was determined to make no effort to dislodge them until morning. The negroes were taken into custody by the officers. The cause of the riot seems to have been a belief on the part of the negroes that the state troops were to be used to suppress a strike of the coal miners. The riot was a result of the strike of the coal miners. The riot was a result of the strike of the coal miners.

There has been no more bloodshed at Paducah, but further trouble is expected tonight. The governor has not ordered any more troops. Elmer Edwards, the soldier shot last night, died this morning. The negroes congregated at the jail again tonight. There is little to be a bloodshed. Mrs. Mat Husbands was seriously wounded during the fight last night by a bullet, which passed through the side of her head.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—The national executive committee of the People's party met tonight at the Hotel Hamilton. The committee was organized on the 30th of this month at Vincennes, Ind., at which meeting both Governor Weaver and Field will be present. After the discussion of the several details of the coming campaign, an adjournment was taken till tomorrow, the following address having been previously adopted:

"The national committee of the People's party makes this appeal to you for ample support.
